Overview

We are excited to return to Vail, Colorado for the 39th Annual Conference on Pediatric Infectious Diseases. Because of the pandemic, we will be holding a hybrid conference. You can choose to come in-person (Live Attendance) or to attend virtually (Virtual Attendance).

Vail is a small community nestled in the mountains and a short, beautiful drive from Denver, Colorado. The in-person conference will take place at The Lodge at Vail (lodgeatvail.rockresorts.com), which is located in the heart of Vail Village.

This conference presents topics of interest to pediatric, family practice and infectious diseases clinicians, as well as other health professionals. Speakers cover the most recent information on diagnosis, management, and prevention of infections in pediatrics. Discussion of controversial issues and questions follow each presentation. This conference is designed to promote information interchange; therefore, registration is limited.

Objectives

Upon completion of this conference, participants will be able to:

- Discuss recent evidence and guidelines for the evaluation and management of fevers in neonates and young infants.
- Discuss approach to diagnosis and management of fever of unknown origin (FUO) in children.
- Describe best use and interpretation of common diagnostic tests used in pediatrics.
- Describe the newest information on influenza and COVID-19 prevention, diagnosis, and management.
- Discuss pros and cons of screening for congenital CMV.
- Discuss newest evidence, best practices and guidelines in the diagnosis and management of HIV, newborns without prenatal care, Kawasaki Disease, eosinophilia, and HEENT infections in children and young adults.
- Review data on new RSV and pneumococcal vaccines and be able to explain recent ACIP recommendations.
- Discuss guidelines and best practices in diagnosing and managing children and young adults with post-viral syndromes.
- Describe the approach to pre-travel consultation and evaluation and management of fevers in the returning traveler.

Continuing Education Credit

Children's Hospital Colorado is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Children's Hospital Colorado designates this Live activity for a maximum of 21 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s).™ Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ABP MOC Part 2: Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the activity, and individual assessment of and feedback to the learner, enables the learner to earn up to 20 MOC points in the American Board of Pediatrics' (ABP) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit learner completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABP MOC credit.

*Instructions on completing online self-assessment tests will be provided to registrants by e-mail before and after the conference.

AAFP: The AAFP has reviewed 39th Annual Conference on Pediatric Infectious Diseases and deemed it acceptable for up to 21.00 Live AAFP Prescribed credits. Term of Approval is from 07/31/2022 to 08/05/2022. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

AAP: This continuing medical education activity has been reviewed by the American Academy of Pediatrics and is acceptable for a maximum of 21.00 AAP credits. These credits can be applied toward the AAP CME/CPD Award available to Fellows and Candidate Members of the American Academy of Pediatrics.
