Overview, Target Audience and Learner Outcome

Much progress has been made in the care of high-risk pregnancies, critically ill newborns, and families. Still, we have more work to do to ensure the best and safest care for these populations. This year the conference addresses hot topics in a changing landscape surrounding pregnancy, newborns, family, and community.

This interprofessional conference is comprised of nurses, advanced practice providers, physicians, respiratory therapists and other perinatal/child health providers practicing in a variety of roles and settings throughout the region.

At the conclusion of this event, participants will report increased knowledge and intent to change practice influencing care for pregnant women and newborns.
