43rd Annual Conference on Pediatric Infectious Diseases

Overview

We are excited to return to Vail, Colorado for the 43rd Annual Conference on Pediatric Infectious Diseases. Vail is a small community nestled in the mountains and a short, beautiful drive from Denver, Colorado.

You can choose to come in-person (Live Attendance) or to attend virtually (Virtual Attendance). The in-person conference will take place at The Lodge at Vail (lodgeatvail.rockresorts.com), located in the heart of Vail Village.

This conference presents topics of interest to pediatric, family practice, and infectious diseases clinicians, as well as other health professionals. Speakers cover the most recent information on diagnosis, management, and prevention of infections in pediatrics. Discussion of controversial issues and questions follow each presentation. This conference is designed to promote information interchange; therefore, registration is limited.

Objectives

Following the presentations, attendees should be able to:

- Describe penicillin allergy delabeling for outpatients
- Discuss management of multidrug-resistant UTIs and SSTIs
- Describe advances and best-practices in the diagnosis and management of pediatric infectious diseases including: viral CNS infections; lymphadenitis; fungal infections; Kawasaki Disease and MIS-C
- Review newly-emerging infections from around the world
- Discuss how vaccines work, vaccine safety, and the rationale behind vaccine schedules and how they have evolved to the current day
- Review best approaches to vaccine hesitancy
- Review 2026-2027 recommendations for influenza, COVID and RSV
- Discuss the changing epidemiology and clinical presentation of several vaccine preventable diseases
- Describe data and best practices for antibiotic durations in children
- Review management of newborns with no/minimal prenatal care or exposure to syphilis
- Review epidemiology, diagnosis and management of common foodborne diseases in children
- Describe important publications from the last year that should change how we practice

Continuing Education Credit

Directly Provided: Children's Hospital Colorado is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Children's Hospital Colorado designates this live or enduring activity for a maximum of 20 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ABP MOC Part 2: Successful completion of this CME activity, which includes participation in the activity, and individual assessment of and feedback to the learner, enables the learner to earn up to 20 MOC points in the American Board of Pediatrics' (ABP) Maintenance of Certification (MOC) program. It is the CME activity provider's responsibility to submit learner completion information to ACCME for the purpose of granting ABP MOC credit.

AAP: This continuing medical education activity has been reviewed by the American Academy of Pediatrics and is acceptable for a maximum of 20.00 AAP credits. These credits can be applied toward the AAP CME/CPD Award available to Fellows and Candidate Members of the American Academy of Pediatrics

AAFP: AAFP credit is pending.
