Collaborative Case Review:

"Are You Sure I'm Safe? -ETs and Debriefs"

Presenter: Dr. Joe Grubenhoff

November 10, 2026 | Noon – 1:00 p.m.

Virtual Zoom platform and in-person attendance option (Anschutz Campus-Mt. Oxford).

Overview, Target Audience and Learner Outcome

Each Collaborative Case Review will describe a case associated with a possible adverse event and explore the system and clinical reasoning factors that may have contributed to this or similar cases for CHCO team members, faculty, fellows, and residents. After participating in this education, participants will report increased knowledge of their contribution to system improvement and their role as members of the diagnostic team.

Objectives

- Examine how system factors and cognitive factors contribute to preventable harm.
- Discuss insights on possible solutions to address these factors.

Continuing Education Credit

Registration and completion of the evaluation within seven days after each presentation is required to receive CE credit.
