

Claiming American Board of Pediatrics (ABP) MOC Part 2 Credit 40th Annual Conference on Pediatric Infectious Diseases

To receive ABP Part 2 MOC credit:

1. Ensure that you have provided your ABP Diplomate ID and day/month of birth through the meeting registration website. This information is required along with your name as recorded by the ABP when we provide certification of completion. A separate email was sent to request this information from you if you have not already completed this information in your CME Tracker profile.
2. Before the conference starts, you will receive an e-mail with a link to the on-line testing platform to complete your ABP MOC course assessment. Please note there is no pre-test.
3. The on-line test will be available through August 31, 2023.
4. Taking the test:
  - We are using an on-line testing platform through ClassMarker.
  - You will access the test by using the link sent to your e-mail the morning of the conference.
  - The test has one question for of the lectures eligible for ABP Part 2 MOC credit (all lectures excluding “Interesting Cases”).
  - You can take the test in one sitting or start the test, save your responses, and resume taking the test another day. If you take part of the test and want to finish later, you will return to the test via the link in your email and click “Resume” and enter your email and password.
  - Within the test session, you will be permitted to go back and change answers to any questions that you previously answered incorrectly. This will allow you to receive points for all questions eventually answered correctly.
  - If you submit the test before answering enough questions correctly to equal 20 points, you can retake it by following the steps you took to take the test initially. Use the link from your email, click “Start” and enter your email and password (you can use the same password).
5. How points are awarded:
  - You must correctly answer all the questions correctly to receive 20 ABP MOC Part 2 points for this conference.
6. The testing system will send you a report of your test results once you submit your test.
7. The deadline for completing the test for ABP MOC Part 2 credit is August 31, 2023.
8. The credit will appear in your ABP portal by early September.
